BILLY BARTON THE WINNER

Scores Another Great Victory in Grand National Handicap.

Secondary Feature to Judge Pryor —Distinguished Visitors Among Immense Crowd.

HAVANA, Cuba, February 12.—Billy Barton, the Cuban Derby winner of last year, scored another great triumph at Oriental Park today when he carried off the rich Grand National Handicap. There were seven starters and Dr. Clark, carrying top weight, set a fast pace from the start and led until entering the homestretch. Then Kelsay brought up Billy Barton with a rush on the outside, caught and passed Dr. Clark at the furlong post and had to be ridden out to stall off a determined rush from General Menocal, the latter closing with great speed and at the finish was going the fastest of all.

The stake had a gross value of $12,240, the winner's portion being $9,880. Billy Barton and General Menocal have had several turf battles in Cuba and the former has always come out victorious.

The races this afternoon were of the most exciting order, the majority of the finishes found the winners under hard drives, with small margins separating the first two.

The Lincoln Handicap was won by R. L. Baker's Judge Pryor. The latter set a fast pace from the start and beat The Boy in a driving finish.

T. Cheek, who has the distinction of being the oldest owner on the American turf, furnished the winner of the opening dash when Major Domo slipped through next to the inside rail after following the leaders and beat Mike by a neck.

An exciting finish came with the running of the second race, in which George W., Twenty Seven and Mack Garner finished in the order named, separated by the closest of margins.

Havana society came out en masse to witness the running of the big stake. The clubhouse balconies were crowded with a distinguished assemblage while the grandstand and private boxes contained many of the capital's leading citizens. It was a most truly representative and most fashionable attendance which gathered to pay homage to the thoroughbred horse and enjoy an afternoon of wholesome outdoor sport. Weather and everything else combined to make the afternoon ideal for racing with as fine a setting for the sport as can be found anywhere.

MARE LANTANA IS DEAD.

H. B. Gilpin, owner of the Kentmere Farms in Virginia, who is visiting Havana, was notified today that his good mare Lantana died from peritanitis following the delivery of a foal, which also died after birth.

L. T. Tarbert, a prominent contractor of Columbus, Ohio, arrived for a short visit with his brother-in-law.

Trainer Bill Finnegan withdrew W. F. Knebelkamp's Lady Astor from the Grand National. The filly developed a slight illness this morning. Riverside struck himself while being galloped this morning and was excused from starting in the third race.

The Spanish minister Angelo Fabra D-Mariatequy and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, Dr. and Mrs. Herrington, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Porter, Col. Francisco Martinez, Lufriu and wife, Dr. Carlo Manuel Bela Cruz, Mr. and Mrs. F. Randall, Ambassador and Mrs. Gonzales, Mr. and Mrs. L. Quesada, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McGraw, Major Alberte Barreras, governor of Havana, Mr. and Mrs. C. Lancaster, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Steinhart, Mr. and Mrs. R. Dorn, H. B. Brown, Col. Charles Fernandez and many newly arrived American tourists were on hand and were charmed with everything they saw. Among the latter were W. S. Larue of Cincinnati, T. R. Peters of St. Louis, Eldridge R. Brooks of East Orange, N. J., R. G. Pierce of Atlanta, Ga., P. E. Leland and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Kirsch of Detroit.

After the races Saturday in the paddock sale Betty J., five-year-old mare by Celt—Logistilla, fetched the highest price, going for $2,505 to E. J Morrell, who will use her in Cuba as a brood mare. The following other sales were: Mary Jane Baker, to E. E. Major for $875; Little Dear, A. Robertson, $875; Chisca, S. Miodow, $650; Athgarven, E. Saunderson, $450; Margaret Nash, J. Lopez, $500; Dragoon, B. B. Rice, $200; J. Alfred Clark, H. G. Wilkins, $175; Brittany, J. Lopez, $175; Double Eye, B. A. Sheldon, $65; Prince of Como, J. Lopez, $75; Cloy, J. Lopez, $75; Signal Corps, J. Lopez, $75, and Horine, J. Lopez, $50.

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Man o' War's first season as a stock horse was a success, eleven of the twelve mares to which he was bred proving in foal.

E. Kennedy, the eminent Irish breeder of The Tetrarch and other great horses and an old man, had a fall in the hunting field lately and shattered his brittle collarbone.

For the second year in succession W. P. Fraser, secretary of the Ontario Jockey Club, acted as judge in the wire-haired fox terrier class at the Terrier Specialty Show in New York yesterday.

The English riders do not cotton to Americans in racing. Some feeling in print is shown about George Archibald being chosen to ride the horses of the rather important Clarehaven stable of P. P. Gilpin this year.

E. F. Simms has returned to New York after a trip to Texas. He stopped on his way back to visit his horses in training at Havre de Grace, Md., in company with his manager, James McClelland. McClelland will remain at the Maryland track for a few days more.

J. A. Coburn has traded to Montfort Jones the three-year-old bay filly Koster Girl, by Maintenant —Gipsy Hill, by Avington, for the two-year-old colt Patrolman, by Uncle—Little Tee, by Galveston. Koster Girl, which has been turned out in New Jersey, is to be shipped to Kentucky in a few days.

THREE FAIRLY SUCCESSFUL STABLES

WHAT R. T. WILSON'S YOUNG HORSES DID LAST YEAR---MY DEAR A GOLD MINE FOR F. MUSANTE---PRODIGIOUS BEST WINNER FOR J. E. DAVIS

R. T. Wilson.

The sale of Yellow Hand and Dry Moon early in 1921 left the R. T. Wilson stable with only two and three-year-olds to furnish the sinews of war last year for the establishment of the president of the Saratoga Racing Association. Twelve out of fourteen of these young horses won twenty-two races and earned $40,410. Duncecap was the largest winner, with Sedgefield her closest rival, while Dimmesdale and Kirtle also did well. The record of the stable for 1921 follows:

F. Musante.

F. Musante only raced four horses last year. But he had a gold mine and a whale of a racer in the King James filly My Dear, a long-distance campaigner with most excellent racing credentials. She raced with the best handicap horses of the year and always held her own, even forcing the great Exterminator to the limit to beat her on several occasions. Altogether My Dear won seven races and $31,584, while King John with $6,425, Joan of Arc with $4,979 and Troubler with $1,750, helped to make up the remainder of the $44,738 to the credit of their owner. The Musante stable record for 1921 follows:

J. E. Davis.

A small and unpretentious racing establishment was that of J. E. Davis last year. His best winner was the two-year-old Fayette filly Prodigious, which won five races and $10,717. The steeplechaser Earlocker contributed $7,325, while Quecreek added $6,153 and Phoenix $4,400. The combined earnings of the Davis horses amounted to $33,980, as shown in the following tabulation:

ONLY THIRTY-SIX MORE DAYS

Remain of Highly Successful Havana Meeting —Jockey Prible Latest Riding Star.

HAVANA, Cuba, February 12.—Today marked the seventy-first day of the present successful season at Oriental Park, and there remain but thirty-six more racing days of the scheduled 107 days. If the remaining period proves anything like as successful as that which has passed into history general manager Frank J. Bruen and his associates in the Cuba-American Jockey and Auto club will have every reason to be satisfied.

The horsemen apparently are well pleased with the manner in which the meeting is being conducted, for one hears hardly any complaints from them on that score, a situation that is unusual at long winter meetings, where there are invariably some disgruntled persons. However, with liberal offerings in the way of stakes and purses and fair treatment and an opportunity for every one to win a purse there is no reason why any horseman should feel dissatisfied. The purse money distribution has been pretty well distributed, in spite of the fact that five or six of the owners have earned large amounts. Every one of the approximately 165 stables here has shared in the purse distribution, which to date amounts to the not inconsiderable sum of $363,600 for the first seventy-one days, an average of $5,121 daily, which is not bad for a winter track and which is in excess of that of any previous meeting.

The last week witnessed the arrival of many prominent visitors from the North and they have been conspicuous in the clubhouse daily assemblage. Many threatrical folks have been here, including a party headed by former Congressman J. L. Rhinock and including J. H. Havlin, J. L. Harris, Ben Lane and Ben Heigenfelt, who during their visit looked over the land with a view of establishing an American theater in Havana. Several noted hotel men have also been visitors, including E. M. Statler and Norman McLeod. John Philip Sousa, who with his famous band played an engagement to capacity houses in Havana, was also a visitor at the clubhouse, where he was royally entertained. A party of New York officials returning from Porto Rico stopped off in Havana to enjoy a few days racing. A. L. Sylvester, vice-president of the American Tobacco Company, was a distinguished clubhouse guest during the week and he enjoyed his visit so well that he has decided to remain over another week. A dinner was given in his honor by Frank Steinhart, noted traction magnate of Havana, at which many representative Cuban citizens were present.

D. Prible is the latest riding star to achieve prominence in the local jockey colony. His work during the last two weeks has brought him into great prominence and caused him to be hailed as the coming riding champion of the year. His feat of riding three winners in one day and on the following day eclipsing this by piloting four winners has not been equaled here. Prible is a native of Parkersburg, W. Va., and is eighteen years old and a modest youth. He started riding at Tijuana last winter, where his work did not attract anything but passing notice, as he rode only one winner, this being Stanley H. That was on April 5, near the end of the meeting. During the summer and fall he rode at various half-mile tracks, including Dufferin Park, Erie and the Montreal half milers.

NANCY LEE TO RACE AGAIN

Sensational Filly to Be Trained for Racing This Year—Other P. A. Clark Horses.

Nancy Lee, four-year-old daughter of Broomstick —Naughty Lady, whose brilliant racing career was brought to a halt early last year when she fell lame, is expected to return to racing during the coming season. She was fired following her mishap and apparently shows no ill effects. Nancy Lee will soon be in training again and, if her underpinning stands the strain, she will go a-racing in the coming eastern season.

The P. A. Clark stable of 1922 will include, in addition to Nancy Lee, several three-year-olds and six two-year-olds. Four of the two-year-olds—Violet Blue, Fil-de-Fer, Simplex and Skirmish—were bred at the Belair Stud. The other two were purchased.

The Clark horses are in winter quarters at Belmont Park in charge of trainer J. McCormack.

Following is the complete list:

Nancy Lee, ch. f, 4, by Broomstick—Naughty Lady, by Esher.

Chewink, blk. f, 3, by Celt—Bobolink II., by Willonyx.

Blue Teal, b. f, 3, by Wrack—Delft, by Burgomaster.

FOURTEEN DAYS REMAINING

End of the Capital Fair Grounds Meeting Drawing Near.

Excellent Racing in Prospect for This Week—C. W. Clark Still Heading Winning Owners.

NEW ORLEANS, La., February 12.—A return to a fast track and good weather has resulted in a vast improvement all around at the Fair Grounds race track. The past week witnessed by far the best sport of the meeting and Saturday proved a fitting climax, with five of the seven races winding up in as thrilling finishes as any one would want to see. Indications point to a continuation of that brand of racing, as the Fair Grounds track was in excellent condition this morning and there is no rain in sight.

Only fourteen days remain of the local meeting, but, as they embrace the Mardi Gras celebration, they will in all probability bring the total attendance mark to more than that of any previous year. Numerous visitors for the carnival festivities have already arrived and the local hotels report reservations in greater number than at any time within the past five years.

Racing secretary Joe McLennan is working on his condition book for the final eight days of the meeting. He will endeavor to bring the higher grade of horses into action as frequently as possible for the benefit of the visitors.

The main event of this week at the Fair Grounds is the Proteus Handicap, with an added value of $2,500. Its conditions call for three-year-olds and over to contest over the distance of one mile and an eighth. Nominations for it close tomorrow and weights will be announced Thursday.

The E. W. Maginn Memorial Handicap, which was postponed earlier in the season because of adverse track conditions, is scheduled to be decided on Tuesday. It will be at one and a sixteenth miles for a purse of $1,500.

Although many of the horses which took part in the racing last week have been absent from the races for two weeks or more while the course was muddy, they raced to form fairly well. Sixteen favorites were successful in forty races, bringing the total number of winning favorites since the meeting opened to 103. A standoff occurred among the odds-on favorites, three winning and three meeting defeat. Horses which went to the post at less than even have performed rather poorly here, as twenty of them failed, while only twenty-three won.

With the end of the rainy spell the C. W. Clark horses ceased to play such a prominent part in the racing here. All of the starters from this establishment are pronounced mud runners and they enjoyed a big winning this winter. Their consistent performances placed $12,214 to the credit of their owner in purse money and enabled him to top the list in this respect. J. S. Hays and John M. Goode are next in order with $8,550 and $8,407 respectively. Other owners meeting with success are: W. D. Bernhardt, $6,442; G. Drumheller, $6,147; Marshall Bros., $5,205; Montfort Jones, $5,304, and J. Cunniffe, $3,981. The Business Men's Racing Association has given $271,500 in purse money in thirty-six days and it has been distributed among 211 owners. There are few stables here which have not cut in on some part of it.

Jockey C. Lang will return to the saddle tomorrow after serving a five days' suspension for rough riding. He enters the next to the last full week of racing here with honors practically clinched. He has won forty-six races, just twice as many as Mack Garner, who is second on the list. A. Wilson is pressing Garner hard for the runner-up position, he having twenty-two victories to his credit. Thirty-nine jockeys have won one or more races at the Fair Grounds out of eighty-eight that have accepted mounts.

OUR LEADING AMERICAN JOCKEYS

By riding seven winners last week while Lang rode three, J. Huntamer moved to the top of the list of the American riders who have ten or more winners to their credit since the first of the year. Huntamer's score is now forty-seven and Lang's forty-six. E. Noble had a banner week, riding eight winners and is now fourth on the list. M. Garner, A. Wilson, A. Pickens, T. Wayt, T. Wilson and P. Hurn were others who did well in the racing of last week. The records of the leaders from January 1 to and including the racing of Saturday last follow:

GREAT SPEED OF LANTADOS

California-Bred Colt Wins From Motor Cop in Special Race.

Immense Crowd Present to See Contest—Jockey Thompson's Three Straight Victories.

TIJUANA, Mexico, February 12.—Starting from the barrier like a bullet from a high powered rifle Lantados, the great son of Cruzados—Feranda, defeated Motor Cop, Tijuana's champion sprinter, by five lengths Saturday in a private sweepstakes at five-eighths mile.

The West and California triumphed over the East, for Lantados, owned by M. J. Barrons and trained by the veteran horseman Jim Curl, was bred at Miss Anita Baldwin's farm near Los Angeles. His grand fathers, Emperor of Norfolk and Rey El Santa Anita, were grand thoroughbreds, both being American Derby winners for E. J. ("Lucky") Baldwin.

Lantados carried 110 pounds and according to scale weight was in receipt of twenty-nine pounds from his rival, Motor Cop, which carried the crushing impost of 140 pounds. The winner had jockey C. Thompson up, who gained fame by riding Behave Yourself to victory in the last Kentucky Derby. Gracing the saddle of Motor Cop was jockey Pablo Martinez, the star rider of the C. B. Irwin stable.

There was scarcely breathing space at the border course as the two grand thoroughbreds went to the post. Racing enthusiasts from all points of the Golden State journeyed to the Tijuana track, attracted by the stellar event. Los Angeles and its nearby territory contributed a large contingent of fans, who came with the hope of seeing Lantados win.

It was a walkup start. Motor Cop had the rail, but this availed him nothing, for Lantados, gifted with the speed of his forefathers, outbroke his rival and assumed the lead in the first stride. In the first twenty-five yards it was easily discerned to the practiced eye that it would have taken a horse of phenominal speed to overhaul Lantados. Every post was a winning one for the sensational California colt. By himself thundered Lantados, with Motor Cop following five lengths back. When the huge crowd beheld the colt far in the lead they were roused to a frenzy of excitement and a mighty roar of cheers burst forth from the throats of the intensely excited attendance, which continued throughout the race. Martinez, on Motor Cop, had resorted to the whip, a sure sign of distress on the part of horse and rider.

Passing the sixteenth post Thompson, on Lantados, glanced over his shoulder and seeing no immediate danger started easing the youngster up, with the result that he truly won under firm restraint. Motor Cop finished five lengths back, a jaded and exhausted ex-champion.

It was an aristocratic thoroughbred which cantered back to the stand, and as he arched his majestic neck and walked into the winners ring he seemed to realize that he had performed a remarkable feat. He was given a tremendous ovation while being unsaddled, which continued until horse and jockey were out of sight.

The time for the race was excellent, inasmuch as Lantados ran the five-eighths in 1:04⅗ over a track so difficult—it was felock deep with holding mud—that only a thoroughbred of exceptional stamina could have set the pace and finished so strong as did this native son of the Golden West.

Immediately after the race trainer Curl announced that he had refused $17,500 for Lantados, this being conditional on him defeating the Irwin hope.

Betting wisdom on the two starters was split in the mutuels, for the price on each to win was 4 to 5.

JOCKEY THOMPSON DAY'S STAR.

Aside from the private sweepstakes the one other outstanding feature of the day was the exceptional horsemanship of jockey C. Thompson. This trojan of the saddle had four mounts during the afternoon and scored with three of them. In the second race he got Bessie Back II. away on her toes and led with the mare by a wide margin to the stretch, where she tired and finished third. Then followed his three wins, which were in succession. Starting with Lantados in the fifth he followed it by a victory with Harry D., the favorite in the sixth, and polished off his excellent afternoon's work by riding Hazel Dale, another first choice, to an easy win in the seventh.

Mountain Girl, paying better than 25 to 1, was the long shot surprise of the day when she earned brackets for her absent owner, W. L. Shaefer, in the last race. Those who held tickets on the mare were almost plunged into despair as the winning horse neared the wire. Fifty yards from the finish jockey Wilson, on Mountain Girl, became overconfident and stopped riding the mare, evidently being of the opinion that he had the race won. However, he all but missed calculations, as Mistress Polly, coming with a cyclonic rush, almost snatched the sweets of victory from him. Luckily, Wilson roused his mount into immediate action again and Mountain Girl just managed to last in a finish so close that not until the official numbers were dropped was the winner known.

There is a great crowd drawn here by the excellent week-end program, featured by the $10,000 Baja California Handicap, at one one-sixteenth, which will be decided Sunday and the Lincoln Handicap, at three-quarters, which is the piece de resistance for Monday.

Among the noted arrivals yesterday was Lic Rafael Castro Villagrana, personal representative of Governor Jose I. Lugo, the newly appointed executive of Baja California. With Colonel Armenta, commander in chief of the Tijuana garrison, these two distinguished Mexicans bore a message of good will from Governor Lugo to president James Wood Coffroth, in which was conveyed the best wishes of the governor to the Jockey Club head for the success and long life of the Lower California racing enterprise.

It will be Senorita Acosta, daughter of the noted Mexican warrior, that will place the floral wreath around the neck of the winning thoroughbred of the Baja California Handicap today. She will be escorted by her father, who will be attired in full regimental regalia, attended by his staff.

COLOR IN RACING HISTORY

Mr. Vosburgh's Relation of Thoroughbred Facts for Accuracy.

Race Horses Have Never Been Bred for Color—Chestnut Color Usually Breeds True.

Some time ago Walter S. Vosburgh, the talented and always accurate handicapper and steward of the Jockey Club, had occasion to puncture this statement by one of the slap dash commentators who upon occasions muss up racing facts. The comment was: "I have not had a single authenticated case where chestnut sire and dam have produced anything but chestnut."

In challenging the statement Mr. Vosburgh wrote some turf history of interest besides questioning the color theory. Here is his statement:

"The brown colt Dick Wilson, foaled in 1893, by Hawthorn from Grace Edwards, was a son of parents both of which were chestnuts. Hawthorn, a chestnut colt, foaled 1890, was by Major Richards from Lady Longfellow, a daughter of Longfellow, owned by Sanford Lyne of Lexington, Ky. Grace Edwards, chestnut mare, foaled 1891, by Harry Edwards from Grace Tower, by Jack Gambol. This colt Dick Wilson raced for upward of five seasons, and he had a younger full sister, like himself, a brown.

"The famous race horse Checkmate is another example. He was a brown, foaled 1874, and his parents, Glen Athol and Full Cry, were both chestnuts. I have a strong personal recollection of Checkmate, having seen him run most of his races. He was what I would call a mouse-brown. His sire, Glen Athol, was a light chestnut (son of Blair Athol), which came here as a two-year-old with Buckden in 1871, and the late R. W. Cameron sold him to Woodburn in the autumn of that year. He was pigeontoed and useless as a race horse, but he sired Checkmate and Glenmore, two of the best performers of their era.

"Checkmate was first credited in the Stud Book to Planet, but Lucas Brodhead, manager of the Woodburn Stud, had it corrected, and he now appears as a son of Glen Athol. I recall having stated in the Spirit of the Times in 1882 that Checkmate looked more like some of the Planets—notably Whisper—than he did the Glen Athols, and Mr. Brodhead wrote me a long letter bringing evidence that Checkmate was really by Glen Athol.

NONSENSE IN COLOR THEORY.

"But even if Checkmate was by Planet it would not alter the matter, for Planet, too, was a chestnut, the son of bay parents, Revenue and Nina. The two cases I cite, those of Dick Wilson and Checkmate, are the only ones of which I have any knowledge. There may be more if anyone will search the Stud Book for them, as it has been my experience that the Stud Book will furnish a man anything he desires, whether to prove a theory or disprove it. Of course, chestnut is a color that usually breeds true, but the race horse is a breed that has never been bred for color, as have some other breeds of horses, and is more likely than are other breeds to perform queer freaks in coloration.

"And that is the point which some recent writers on the coat color of race horses seem to overlook. The race horse, the fighting cock and the coursing greyhound have all been bred for generations without regard to color, but for speed, courage and nervous force—constitutional qualities as opposed to fancy qualities. Their trial is on the race course, the cock pit or the coursing ground; the other belongs in the show room. Such breeding without regard to color produces some strange results, often cases of reversion to a remote ancestor.

"It is aside from the present question, but personally I regret that so much has been written recently on the question of color, for we have seen what breeding for color has done for poultry and dogs. Exhibitions are useful in that they stimulate the interest in stock, but they demand a breeding for points often at variance with utility. Some of the dogs exhibited at shows in the sporting classics show by their feet and toe nails they are seldom if ever used in the field and, as for the show greyhounds, it is likely that Winning Number, winner of the Waterloo Cup, could give one of them a furlong start and beat him in a quarter of a mile. And so it is with game fowls. The show room with its breeding to feather (color) has produced a monstrosity with legs like stilts and necks like cranes.

SOME COLOR NOTIONS IN GOSSIP.

"Now such fowls are useless except for show. The late Mr. Hunter's fighting fowls were not bred to color, neither were the Heathwoods, nor the North Britons of Syracuse, N. Y., bred from the Gilliver birds brought from Cumberland in England. Neither were the Featherstonehaughs, for three cocks came over the ocean in 1871 with Buckden and Glen Athol, and one was a brown red, one a black red and one a pile, and Mr. Cameron and Mr. Hunter, who had them, found their progeny invincible and breeding all colors. If we breed with regard to color we often have to disregard constitutional qualities, which for physical contention are the most necessary.

"I can remember when a boy hearing turfmen claim the chestnut sons of Lexington were inferior. True, during the first ten years in the stud Lexington's best were bays, but in 1868 Gen. Duke, a chestnut, won the Belmont Stakes and was about the best colt of the year. In 1870 came the chestnut Foster, a grand race horse, and in 1871 Wanderer, another chestnut and another grand race horse. I heard the same of Leamington, which in his first seasons produced his best in browns and bays; but then came Aristides, Olitipa, Harold, Spinaway and Onondaga, all chestnuts and race horses of the first water. Leamington was himself a brown, like his sire, Faugh-a-Ballagh, but the latter was full brother to the chestnut Birdcatcher, and, moreover, Leamington's maternal grandsire, Pantaloon, was a chestnut; hence there was a strong leaven of chestnut in Leamington despite his own color and the fact that his progeny were mostly brown.

"All these controversies as to color and pedigree afford subjects for interesting conversation and open a field of interesting study to the novice. But in those of long experience, who have been face to face with the practical side of racing, it is difficult to understand how anyone can be impressed with their utility."

SECOND THOUGHTS' QUALITY

E. F. Whitney's Smart Ultimus—Lydia II. Filly of Pure American Breeding.

There is a real good filly wintering at Syosset, Long Island, in E. F. Whitney's barn. She is Second Thoughts, the thirteenth foal of her dam, the old Luke Blackburn mare Lydia II., also the dam of Auntie, Sagamore and Colonel Cook. Second Thoughts is by Ultimus and American up to the fifth step. Then she goes to Bonnie Scotland and Dancing Water—the best from England. Second Thoughts raced in Canada, Maryland and at Saratoga last year twelve times for six wins and $18,630. She was not unplaced during the year and was fast, game, healthy and best in the autumn. Here is a nice young filly and an individual to reckoned with in the three-year-old stakes. Mr. Whitney got Second Thoughts for $1,600 out of the Beaumont Stud yearlings, which were sold at Saratoga in 1920.

Second Thoughts' performances of 1921 are below:

INCIDENT OF FRENCH RACING OF 1878

An incident which assumed the proportions of a scandal and yet brought no punitive action from the officials during the early days of loose control on the French turf is related in Le Sport Universel:

The Omnium of 1878 brought an incident, which threatened for a time to shake the French turf world to its foundations.

The stable of Baron de Rothschild had entered two horses, Reserviste II., which ruled as favorite, and Reveillon, quoted at 50 to 1, but completely neglected in the betting. The stable, of course, declared to win with Reserviste II., as Reveillon had been placed in the race only to set the pace at the start and to fade discreetly into the background when the proper time arrived.

Everything went according to schedule until the field turned into the stretch. Reveillon was leading, with his stablemate, the favorite, following easily a length or two in the rear. The Rothschild pair were well ahead of the rest of the field and the spectators were waiting to see Rolfe on Reveillon ease up his mount and allow Reserviste II. to go to the front.

But Rolfe continued to ride hard in violation of his orders and reached the finish a length ahead of Reserviste II. The demonstration that followed was great and directed entirely against the jockey as the honor of the stable was beyond suspicion.

But the stewards could do nothing. However guilty Rolfe was professionally his act did not fall under the rules of racing, which prescribe, on the contrary, that a jockey shall always ride to win. Enormous sums, of course, were lost by the public, but, as some expressed it at the time, "not everybody lost by the affair."

TAKING NO CHANCES WITH DUETTISTE

The English handicappers differ about Duettiste. Mr. Tapham of Liverpool gave him 166 for the Grand National at four and one-half miles and Major W. F. Lee of Manchester allotted him 167 for the Lancashire, at three and one-half miles. In the National Shaun Spadah got five pounds more and in the Lancashire one pound less than the American gelding. Foxhall P. Keene's Masterful got the low limit, 140 pounds, and W. A. Read's Square Up 144 pounds.
